

LiLAC NEWS

Spring 2015 | Idaho's Library Leadership Newsletter | Issue 2

Upcoming leadership conferences

Idaho Library Association Annual Pre-Conference
September 30

PNLA Leads October 25-30

Library Journal Lead the Change November 10

Leadership book recommendations

Looking for a good book on leadership? Try one of these titles recommended by LiLAC members.

Book list

LiLAC links

<http://idaholibraries.org/resources/library-leadership-in-idaho/>

<http://libraries.idaho.gov/leadership>

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/IdahoLeadershipSummit/>

LiLAC Leadership Pre-Conference on September 30

The Library Leadership Advisory Committee (LiLAC) invites all members of the Idaho library community to consider attending the Leadership Pre-Conference at the Idaho Library Association Annual Conference on September 30. The day long pre-conference features Phil Eastman of Leaders Advisory Group, a nationally recognized leadership consultant and trainer. His expertise has made him a sought-after teacher, speaker, and advisor to organizations in the United States, Canada, Asia, Europe, and Australia. For more information on Eastman go to <http://leadershipadvisors.com/consultants/phil-eastman#sthash.ZKOUUnZhL.dpuf>.

LiLAC is excited to make this quality, high-energy workshop available to the members of the Idaho library community, thanks to a grant from the Idaho Commission for Libraries and the Institute of Museum and Library Services. This is a rare opportunity to receive a customized, tailored report on the status of your current leadership skills, as well as to create a personalized leadership development plan to enhance your career development.

Registration is limited to 50 people, so be ready to apply as soon as registration is available after July 1. If you are interested, or need more information contact Shirley Biladeau at shirley.biladeau@libraries.idaho.gov.

The mission of LiLAC is to foster a culture of leadership throughout the Idaho library community. What better way to start than with a world-reknown leadership consultant? It is truly an event you won't want to miss and will be life changing.

Application Process Open for 2015 PNLA Leadership Institute

The application process for the 2015 PNLA Leadership Institute (October 25-30, Adrift Hotel, Long Beach, Washington) is now open, with applications being accepted through May 30, 2015. Building on the success of five previous institutes, and with the support from the Institute of Museum and Library Services, the five and a half-day immersive leadership development program for 32 individuals will be led again by Schreiber Shannon Associates and eight library leaders from the Pacific Northwest.

The PNLA Leadership Institute is one of the key activities of the Pacific Northwest Library Association. To date, 164 individuals have gone back to their libraries, library systems, and communities equipped with leadership and management skills to help guide their libraries in this time of tremendous and constant change. If you are an emerging leader serving in any capacity in a library in the Pacific Northwest and have a desire to network with other leaders and increase your skills, this Institute is for you.

Qualified applicants must be currently employed at a library and have at least five years experience. Applicants should also be a current member of PNLA or ILA. Registration fees will be $500-$600 and includes lodging, meals and institute materials.

The application form as well as details and guidelines are at <http://www.pnla.org/leadership-institute>.

If you have an questions, please contact Mary DeWalt, PNLA Leads coordinator, at mdewalt@adalib.org or 208-362-0181 ext. 123.

Creating a culture of leadership.

Read 2 Lead

Read2Lead's first annual book was voted and chosen by all of you. This year's title is Leaders Eat Last: Why Some Teams Pull Together and other Don't by Simon Sinek.

The Read2Lead committee will host two online book discussions through Adobe Connect. May 13 at 10:00 a.m. MSTT/9:00 a.m. EST and again on August 12 at 2:00 p.m. MST/1:00 p.m. EST. We will also be hosting an in person discussion in October at ILA.

<http://icfl.adobeconnect.com/ce>